

The Fresno State Center for Leadership recognizes

Gokhul Venkatesh Babu

for completing education for leadership at the

GRADUATE STUDENT LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

September 24, 2017

Leadership Programs Coordinator

FRESNO STATE[®]

Center for Leadership

The Graduate Student Leadership Institute (GSLI: a leadership opportunity designed specifically for post-baccalaureate students) is a two day immersive experience that covers advanced leadership and professional development topics.

Day One	Day Two
You have to be HEARD to be believed! – Dr. Don Simmons <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An exploration of the concept of executive presence and effective communication. • Competencies developed: executive presence; verbal/nonverbal communication; and, active listening. 	The EDGE Challenge Course <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A four-hour challenge/ropes course group development experience. • Competencies developed: organizational behavior; group development; and collaboration.
Leading Change – Dr. Amy Climer <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cultivating an understanding of the change process and how to manage oneself and others through change. • Competencies developed: group dynamics – creating change; organizational behavior; and, responding to change.
Leadership Applied – Arthur Montejano, MA <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Developed and understanding of one’s behavioral tendencies as a leader, the roots of those behaviors and values, and understanding motivation. • Competencies developed: self-understanding; personal values; and, motivation. 	Adjournment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Creating a personal brand of leadership and receiving/providing feedback in context of the weekend’s events. • Competencies developed: strategic planning; providing feedback; personal values; and personal contributions.